

NADUN DANANJAYA

Software Engineering Undergraduate University Of Kelaniya

ABOUT ME

I'm a Software Engineering student at the University of Kelaniya with a strong passion for full-stack development. I've built a solid foundation in front-end and back-end technologies through both academic work and personal projects. I enjoy building responsive, user-focused applications and solving real-world problems with clean, efficient code. I thrive in team environments and am actively seeking internship opportunities to grow my skills and contribute to impactful projects.

PROJECTS

ReadMore- Online Books Store (Individual)

Mar 2025 - May 2025

- This full-stack web application provides dedicated portals for users and administrators, enabling secure and role-based access to system features. The frontend is built with React and styled using Tailwind CSS for a responsive and modern user interface. JWT authentication ensures secure login and protected routes. Application state and server communication are efficiently handled using Redux Toolkit and RTK Query, enabling smooth data management and a seamless user experience.

- Technologies - React | Node.js | Express.js | MongoDB

FuelQ - Fuel Quota Management System (Group)

Dec 2024 - Feb 2025

- This full-stack mobile application streamlines fuel distribution through dedicated web portals for vehicle owners, fuel station operators, and administrators. The backend API, built with Spring Boot, is secured using JWT authentication for safe and role-based access. Integrated Twilio and Mailgun services enable real-time SMS and email notifications. A QR code scanning feature enhances the efficiency of fuel allocation at stations. The mobile app, developed using React Native, offers seamless on-the-go access for all user types.

- Technologies - Spring Boot | React | React Native
